

What are the Behaviors of a Successful Team?

By Sofia, Efe, Alec, and Brianna

A Quick Question

“Individually we are one drop. Together we are an ocean.”

What do you think it means? Please save any answers until the end, there are many answers!

Open Mind

- Listen to each other
- Try new ideas
- Think of others

Ted and Lisa (from Google) are telling us to listen to others

Mr. Gross (retired military) is telling us about having an open mind

Take Risks

We are taking a risk in our saving Fred activity

- Take risks to share your ideas
- Your team might like your idea
- Be open to each other's ideas

Communication

- Sharing ideas
- Different ways to communicate
- Team meetings

Encourage Each Other

- Giving positive feedback
- Compliments
- Never be negative

Positivity

- Always be positive
- If you're positive, you will get things done
- You won't have a positive outcome if you are negative

Honesty

- Always tell the truth
- Always have an open mind
- Always be honest to your teammates

Cooperate

- Work with each other
- Respect each other
- Listen to others ideas

Resilience and Problem Solving

- Try to be a role model
- If you make a mistake, try to correct it
- You learn a lot from your mistakes

Answers to the Question

“Individually we are one drop. Together we are an ocean.”

What do you think it means?

Any answers?

?

We Would Like to Give Credit to:

- Mr. Gross who works for the military
  - Ted and Lisa who work at Google
  - Nate Palmer who plays for the Green Bay Packers
  - Mr. Kazimour who works at Lake Forest Fire Department
  - Dr. Helms who is a heart doctor
  - Dr. Yardimci who is an Engineer
  - Dr. Griffith who is an emergency room doctor
  - Dr. Rousou who is a heart doctor
  - Stephanie from Egg Harbor
  - Gail and Pam from Orphans of the Storm
  - Mr. Campagni who is a fireman
  - Jill from Starbucks
  - Andy Avalos from NBC News
-

We Appreciate Your Time and Support

